

Dental Public Health (DPH)

LECTURES:

6th semester - summer:

1. Sociological studies in medicine.
2. Dental Ergonomics. Dental equipment – main characteristics. Planning and equipment of dental surgery.
3. Dental Ergonomics. Organization of Treatment – Diagnostic Process.
4. Dental Ergonomics. Four-Handed Dentistry.
5. Dental Ergonomics. Highlights in utilization of ergonomic style of dentist's work.
6. Occupational risks in Dental practice.
7. Cross-infection control in dental practice.
8. Opening and management of dental practice. Labor and legal relationships.

SEMINARS:

6th semester - summer:

1. Sociological studies – types.
2. Practical task: constructing of a questionnaire.
3. Colloquium.
4. Dental ergonomics – main goal, tasks and principles.
5. Dental equipment – characteristics of dental apparatuses
6. Planning and equipment of a dental surgery.
7. Organization of treatment process.
8. Auxiliary personnel in dental practice.
9. Positioning of patient and dental team during clinical process.
10. Occupational risks in dental practice – biological, chemical and physical risk factors.
11. Occupational risks in dental practice – working posture, stress and specific activities in dental practice.
12. Cross-infection control in dental practice.
13. Requirements for opening and registration of dental practice.
14. Requirements for signing contract with NHIF. Postgraduate education.
15. Demonstration of team work in dental surgery.