

THEME SCHEDULE FOR PRECLINICAL CLASSES ON ORAL AND MAXILLOFACIAL SURGERY - III COURSE – WINTER SEMESTER

I. Polyclinic classes- 4 h/week

1. Principles of surgery- asepsis and antisepsis. Preparation of the surgeon and the surgical field.

2. Surgical armamentarium. Principles of usage.

3. Acquiring case history, general and clinical status of the patient and maintenance of hospital records.

4. Analyzing the paraclinical test results.

5. Seminar on patient examination.

6. Preparing the patient for local anesthesia. Local anesthetics.

7 and 8. Methods for local anesthesia and extraction of teeth of the upper jaw.

9 and 10. Methods for local anesthesia and extraction of teeth of the lower jaw.

11. Seminar on local anesthesia.

12. Indications for tooth extraction.

13 and 14. Demonstration- application of local anesthesia and tooth extraction.

15. Postoperative wound care. Demonstration-suturing, curettage, drainage and etc.

HEAD OF DEPT. DENTAL, ORAL AND MAXILLOFACIAL SURGERY
PROF. P. STANIMIROV, MD, DDS, PHD:...

