

Themes for preclinical exercises in oral and maxillofacial surgery – III course – summer semester

I – Outpatients' auditory exercises – 4 hours weekly.

1 -2. Study of methods for examination, diagnostics and treatment of acute periodontites and the anaesthesia of children with Acute Odontogenic Infection; anaesthesia and teeth extractions.

3. Study of methods for examination, diagnostics and treatment of chronic periodontites.

Anesthesia and teeth extractions.

4. Introduction and performance of apicectomy and hemiextraction.

5 -6. Introduction to the methods of examination, diagnostics and treatment of odontogenic cysts.

7. Seminar – examination, diagnostics and treatment of periodontites and cysts.

8. Teeth dentition – methods of examination, diagnostics and treatment; anesthesia and teeth extractions.

9. Extraction of different teeth groups.

10. Introduction and performance of wisdom teeth extractions – methods. Anesthesia and teeth extractions.

11. Introduction and performance of impacted teeth.

12. Methods of management of during and post – anesthesia complications.

13. Seminar on local anesthesia and teeth extractions.

14. Management of post – extraction complications.

15. Practical exam.

HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT OF
DENTAL, ORAL AND MAXILLOFACIAL SURGERY:

PROF. STANIMIROV, MD, DDS, PHD

