

PRACTICAL EXERCISES

Dental Allergology
Winter semester 2026-2027

№	Topics
I	Theoretical part – Complex focal diagnostic. System of common reactivity by Phischinger. Diagnostic in dental allergology. Requirements for carrying out the activity in primary outpatient care. Practical part – Prick test. Local anesthetics and latex allergy. Indications and contraindications.
II	Theoretical part – Allergens in dental practice. Practical part – Patch test. Indications and contraindications.
III	Theoretical part – Allergens in dental practice. Root canal materials for temporary and permanent obturation. Indications and contraindications. Practical part – Pulp vitality test. Algorithm for taking information for used dental materials.
IV	Theoretical part – Paraclinical investigation in Dental allergology. Practical part – Thermovision. Local thermometric test (LTT)
V	Theoretical part – Allergens in dental practice. Dental materials in orthodontics and prosthodontics. Burning mouth syndrome (BMS). Practical part – Pathogalvanism.
VI	Theoretical part – Drugs used in dental allergology. Practical part – Emergency box and application of drugs.
VII	Theoretical part – Anaphylactic shock. Signs and symptoms. Differential diagnosis. Prevention and management. Practical part – Premedication protocols. Test

Head of Department:

(Prof. Dr. Hristina Mihaylova, Ph.D)

