

Standard for Medical Activity in Pediatric Dentistry in the pre-graduation internship 2026 – 2027

1.	Comprehensive examination and full documentation of a child up to 16 years old. Risk assessment and development of a preventive program. Treatment, treatment and follow-up plan for the duration of the internship.	1 case
2.	Operative treatment of carious lesions of primary teeth.	4 caries lesions
3.	Operative treatment of carious lesions of permanent teeth.	4 caries lesions
4.	Non-operative preventive treatment of reversible carious lesions of immature permanent teeth (with follow-up and documentation of the effect of treatment)	1 case
5.	Treatment of a complicated carious lesion of a primary tooth.	1 case
6.	Treatment of periodontal disease in childhood and adolescence (with follow-up and documentation of the effect of treatment)	1 case
7.	Diagnosis and treatment of oral mucosal disease (may also be a virtual clinical case)	1 case
8.	Prophylactic silanization	2 cases
9.	Local fluoride prophylaxis	2 cases

Note: Each clinical unit can be part of the treatment of complex patients. Additional therapeutic manipulations are allowed when related to the rehabilitation of a complex patient.

Head of Department Pediatric Dentistry

Prof. N. Grancharova, PhD